To Whom It May Concern:

It gives me great pleasure to have the opportunity to offer this testimonial on behalf of Pegine Echevarria.

Pegine served as the moderator/facilitator of the Third Annual Orange County Mayor's 2007 Women's Leadership Summit, held on March 15, 2007 at the Orange County Convention Center. Her presentation was dynamic, invigorating, fun-filled and relevant. Our Summit featured three other dynamic speakers and it was the facilitator's job to tie in one with the other and maintain the flow of energy. Pegine did this with tremendous ease, not only ensuring that the ideas presented by the speakers remained fresh and alive, but adding her own wisdom to the entire experience.

Sometimes in the course of organizing and planning an event of this nature, tempers are short and patience wears thin. Working with Pegine was effortless and soothing. She was willing to participate where needed, established a comfortable rapport with the other speakers and the event organizers and went beyond her duties as moderator to ensure a smooth and effortless program. She will definitely be on our list for future events.

The 2007 Women's Leadership Summit was an astounding success and Pegine Echevarria was very much a part of that success.

Sincerely,
