What will you do as a result of this Keynote?

- I will take charge of my future
- Focus on leadership and network more frequently
- Meet more people
- To be confident on introducing yourself to others
- I will look inwards for solutions
- Bring back to our center and especially the associate/rep level because they are a big asset. Utilize myself
- Take ownership in my career development
- Laugh more often so my new team can lean the benefits behind it. Leadership is FUN as long as you continue engaging people no matter how the landscape turns
- Share it and apply it
- I can, I want to and I will pursue
- Engage my board members. Be open and receptive when meeting new people
- I will put more focus on meeting people
- Talk about my experience and what I got out of it and to believe I can, I want to and I will.
- Buy her books

What did you like best about the Keynote?

- Her spontaneous personality. She touched me in a way she could never imagine. I needed this at this time in my life
- Interaction with the audience was a plus. In addition to providing real life situation that we can relate to
- Comic relief
- How she was able to incorporate the audience in her presentation and present her message in a humorous form.
- Involving Verizon in the message
- Her ability to engage the audience
- The baseball game really stuck and Zorro (being a Zorro myself)
- Her honesty and down to earth approach
- Loving what you do, laughing your way to success, lighten up so you can think more clearly, make yourself happy, There is nothing you can't accomplish if your pursuit is no strong. You are the master of your destiny, what you get is what you put in.
- Her enthusiasm and high energy
- Personality and energy
- Her honesty and openness
- Her down to earth approach
- Her ability to draw you in and hold your attention
- Funny – relevant - engaging
